

Life Cycle Assessment (LCA) Seminar in Tsukuba

Introducing LCA and SimaPro Software for Students in Tsukuba

What is LCA?

LCA helps researchers to estimate and evaluate the environmental impacts of products and systems from cradle to grave for different phases.

These stages include extraction of minerals and fuels, production of materials and products, transportation, use and final disposal (waste).

Date:

14:30 – 16:30

19th November, 2016

Venue:

Conference Room 407

Tsukuba International

Congress Center

2-20-3, Takezono,

Tsukuba, Ibaraki

305-0032

Contact:

Email: spedu@tco2.com

Tel: +81-3-6272-6814

Information

TCO2 Co., Ltd. is a member of the SimaPro Global Partner Network and pleased to announce that it will organize an introductory seminar of LCA for students in Japan in English.

The seminar will feature an introduction to Life Cycle Assessment (LCA) and the SimaPro software by experts. SimaPro is the most widely used LCA software in the world and is very strong in the Academic field. Attendance is free of charge, and everyone is welcome.

Please reserve your seat online:

<http://spedu.tco2.com/register>

